People have written poetry, literature,
screenplays and Bollywood item numbers about Bombay.
Maybe it is time for a drinking song?

"Rolling down Marine Drive with a lowball in our hands,
Drink up, free your minds, and loosen up your pants.

There's Chowpatty Beach comin' up to the left,
and Bachelorr's on the right.

Hey! Hey! Let's switch to highballs, and keep drinking with all our might.

Sev puri soaks up liquor, Vada pao is our friend,
Let's take a kali peeli ride till the road ends.

Are we there yet? The sun's coming up now, Bottoms up, darlings, let us show you how!"

We do not levy a service charge, but if you had a fab time, feel free to request an addition. Our team works hard and will be over the moon!

Bombay's very own Big Ben, the Rajabai Clock Tower once played sixteen tunes throughout the day. 'Britannia', 'God Save the King', and 'Home! Sweet Home!' were amongst them. Today, the bell chimes the same sound every fifteen minutes, but that doesn't take away from its beauty. Settle down on the grass at Oval Maidan and hear its call.

Built in 1875, Sassoon Docks is one perhaps the oldest docks in Bombay and one of largest fish markets in the city. Once instrumental in setting up the cotton trade, the docks now are all about art. In 2017, a part of the 142-year-old fishing docks was transformed into an exhibition space, with 30 artists from around the world using it as a canvas. Keep a lookout for this year's St+art Urban Art Festival. And if it is a clear day, you might even see the island of Oyster Rock from the shore.

Bombay's most iconic kali peeli, the Premier Padmini not only ruled Bombay's streets, but is also woven in fabric of the city's culture. From blockbusters to car races, the kali peeli has time and time again been the star of the show. And, who can forget the quirky art on the cab's roof? Gawdy coloured flowers and fruits, trippy patterns, filmy posters... the Premier Padmini once paraded all up and down Bombay.

*The perfect drinking snack, roasted peanuts are delicious!
Bombay's traffic can be quite horrendous, and peanut hawkers have been known to approach cars stuck in traffic calling,
"time pass, time pass!". Meaning, pass your time by eating peanuts.
How cute is that!*

*Ganna juicewalas give Bombay a touch of extra sweetness.
Squeezed fresh with their secret masala and shavings of ice, sugarcane juice is arguably the cheapest, tastiest juice in town.
Down it by the half glass or order a full.
(Insta tip: A ganna juice moustache is perfect for silly selfies.)*
